YOUTH LENS INFORMED CONSENT AND RELEASE FORM

Youth Lens

Youth Lens is a project run by Oregon Chinese Coalition for community youth that connects student writers, videographers, photographers, and journalists with their community to discuss socio-cultural issues through youth led journalism. Youth Lens is managed by high school students under the mentorship of Oregon Chinese Coalition.

Informed Consent

You are invited to participate in a community interview project conducted by students for Oregon Chinese Coalition through the Youth Lens project. This project seeks to tell the stories of our community members. You have been selected as a possible participant in this project because you are someone who currently lives in the Portland Metro Region.

If you decide to participate, you will be asked to sit for a video interview. The interview will last about 30-45 minutes and take place in a quiet location. Participation is voluntary and you may withdraw at any time; additionally, you may interrupt at any time for any reason. You also have the right to review the materials (recordings, transcript and notes, photographs) prior to publication.

If you have questions or concerns about your participation in this study, please contact the mentor, Frances Lu-Pai Ippolito, at frances.pai.ippolito@gmail.com. Again, your participation is voluntary.

Release

I hereby grant Oregon Chinese Coalition and Youth Lens, the journalists, videographers, and the photographers the right to use my likeness in photographs, story, or other items (such as recordings and notes), and in all of their publications relating to this assignment, including those displayed online. I will make no monetary or other claim against Youth Lens, Oregon Chinese Coalition, or the videographer or photographer for the use of the photographs and video footage.

I understand that I have the right to request, in writing, to have a photo and/or my story removed from the website or any other space within 90 (ninety) calendar days.

I certify that any statements made by me to the journalist, videographer, photographer, and interviewer under this release are true. I further understand that Oregon Chinese Coalition owns all copyrights to any photographs/video taken for this interview.
